Awaken The Swarm

Agent Steel

You and I are not alone
The earth and sea are not your home
Soon our eyes will see the truth
Elimination offering the proofUnderneath us as above us
Monitoring our existence
Shame to know
Too late we'll realizeKeep us in the black
Created by the ones who have predated
Fathered us
And still we are deniedAwaken The SwarmTunnels deep inside the earth
Cities built to house the men of worth
Fodder for their Godz
Created us to pay the costThe price of their survival
Dictates our removal from their space
An accident
We're children born of liesSo below us plots conspire
To closet those who speak the truth
I'll not be silent
We must fight it
RealizeAwaken the swarmWe are not alone
Tested as we've grown
Knowledge gained is now a curse
The more you know, the less you're worthAwaken the swarmAWAKE!
