

Abandon! Abandon! (Demo)

The Jealous Sound

You could kill me with kindness
Could you cure me from blindness?
And if not, then help me medicate It seems I caught cold
When I was two years old
It won't seem to go away
For the first time in a long time
Feeling better today Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed All the doubters surround me
And their whispers astound me
And I think I hear my name So I call out from the bottle
In the sunny and the startled
But everything is still the same Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed Don't bail out, abandon
Don't throw you hands in
The burning mistake
Is your constant companion It's your last chance
It's your window
Don't fuck up you can't lose
And it's everything you need Do you tear the bandage off
And you clear your throat and cough
If you can't move
Then just believe Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed So bail out, abandon
Don't throw you hands in
The burning mistake
Is your constant companion Can you feel me now?
I am stronger
I am no longer overcome
I am overjoyed
