

Need To Let Go

Jonah33

It comes in like a flood
And shoves off just the same
Never a warning
With no one to blame
And not even time can offer a remedy
Like a knife through my heart
A kiss to my face
Is your memory
Then I saw a face
And I swear it was you
And I miss you so much
Hey can you hear me?
I need you to know
That if it's all right with you
I just need to let go
'Cause time waits for no one
And life carries on
And I'll never forget you
I just need to let go
I just need to let go
And you'll never find mercy
In the cycle of life
You can't bend the rules
'Cause everyone dies
When my boy looks at me

Like I looked at you
I'll be king of the world
If he loves me half as much as I loved you
Then I saw a face
And I swear it was you
And I miss you so much
Hey can you hear me?
I need you to know
That if it's all right with you
I just need to let go
'Cause time waits for no one
And life carries on
And I'll never forget you

I just need to let go
I just need to let go
Hey can you hear me?
I need you to know
That if it's all right with you
I just need to let go
'Cause time waits for no one
And life carries on
I just need to let go
