Cherokee Fiddle

Johnny Lee

When the [D]train pulled into the [G]station

He'd open up his [A]case [Bb]and resin up his [Bm]bow [Bb]

He'd play upside down the Orange Blossom Special

Cause if you want to make a living you've got to put on a good showChorusAnd when he'd smell the smoke and the cinders

He'd slick back his hair, and open up his case
He'd play the Cherokee Fiddle, he'd play it for the whiskey
Cause good whiskey never let him lose his placeHe was always there, playing for the miners
The Devil's Dream was a song they understood

And then he'd go out to Oklahoma

But he'd wait till the trains were running and the weather was goodChorusINSTRUMENTAL (Like a verse)Now the Indians are dressing up like cowboys

And the cowboys are putting leather and turquoise on

And the music is sold by lawyers

And the fools who fiddled in the middle of the stations are goneSome folks say they'll never miss him That old fiddle [Bm]squealed like the engines brakes

The Cherokee Fiddle is gone forever

Like the music of the whistle that the old locomotives madeSo when you smell the smoke and the cinders Slick back your hair, and open up your case

Play the Cherokee Fiddle, you can play it for the whiskey
Good whiskey will never let you lose your place never let you lose your placeGood whiskey will never let

Good whiskey will never let you lose your placeGood whiskey will never let you lose your place
