

Romance

Tales Of Terror

You, you thought you were a real big girl
You thought you knew it all
But baby if that was true
Then why'd we find you dead in a shower stall? I fell in love, and now you're dead
I feel in love with you and now you're dead
Played with needles just a little too much
You always had to find the ultimate rush Another love done, past, gone
My heart bleeds, now you're gone
Will more terror fill my eyes
I wanna give up but I don't wanna die Fell in love, and now you're dead
I fell in love with you and now you're dead
Played with needles just a little too much
You always had to find the ultimate rush I will, never, fall in, love, again Now I've fallen into your same mess
Life, can I pass the test
Now I've fallen into your same game
And will our destinies end the same Played with needles just a little too much
You always had to find the ultimate rush
