Pearls

Shannon Brown

These pearls from my mother, passed down from her mother
Of everything they gave me, I treasure them most Cant wear them, cant hold them, dont come from the ocean
Oh, theyre way more precious than anything I ownTheyre written in my soulRemember who you are and dont forget to pray
Make sure hes your best friend when you give your heart away
Be kind, be strong, be someone everyone can count on
Yeah, someday Im gonna give my little girl these pearls, oh yeah, yeahIll teach her about make-up, boyfriends and break-ups
Ill share all the wisdom Ive ever learned
Like beautys on the inside and give it your best try
Ill pass down the same words, Ive always heardAnd shell carry them with herRemember who you are and dont forget to pray
Make sure hes your best friend when you give your heart away
Be kind, be strong, be someone everyone can count on
Yeah, someday Im gonna give my little girl these pearlsShell tell her daughter and shell tell hers too
Ive saved these pearls just for you, just for youRemember who you are and dont forget to pray
Make sure hes your best friend when you give your heart away
Yeah, be kind, be strong, be someone everyone can count on Yeah, someday Im gonna give my little girl, oh
Someday Im gonna give my little girl these pearlsThese precious pearls
