Suffer

Endo

Let it goWhat's drowning you is slowly drowning me
You make me suffer to watch your disease
Trapped in yourself, come release your mind
Relax, we'll leave this world behindYou still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this state you're in
You still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this shit you're inLet it goShade in your world and lost within your sea
Fade in the shadows, in trust you deceive
You hold your breath underneath your lies
Confined, you leave the knife insideYou still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this state you're in
You still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this shit you're inDown low, on the phone, so afraid to be alone
Shot down underneath, bring me down for what I need
I cried for you, maybe God could see me through
I pray every day, you're still in my skinYou still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this state you're in
You still suffer, still suffering
You still suffer from this shit you're inWhy? Why? Why? Why?
