Crazy (Weakling Remix)

Thief

You tell me why it's got to be so cold with you?
When are you gonna let this whole thing go?
Won't you hold onto the things we used to do?
When you're gonna open up the door?
And why do you wanna let this hold you down
If you don't wanna be helded off
You tell me why it's got to be so cold with you?
When I wanna give you more more more?!
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
Crazier than you!
Crazier than you!
You tell me why is got to be so hard with you?
Why you gotta do it on your own?
And why are you so afraid to try and loose?
If it only means you're still alone?
You tell me how you got to get back on your feet
If you don't wanna be backed on?
You tell me why is got to be so hard with you?
When I wanna give you more more more?!
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
Crazier than you!
Crazier than you!
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
Crazier than you!
Crazier than you!
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
I must be crazy, crazy to be loving you,
Crazier than you!
Crazier than you!
