

Take Me Back

Bryan Adams

I shoulda seen it coming, baby
I shoulda seen the signs
Didn't really think that she needs me
Must've been blind She didn't give me a warning
Said I shouldn't treat you wrong
But when I woke up this mornin'
She was gone gone gone She said
Take me back won't ya
Take me back won't ya
I'll change my ways
She said, take me back won't ya
Take me back won't ya
I'm not the same She didn't tell me about it
Am I supposed to read your mind
You make me get up and shout it
It's a crime crime crime I shoulda seen it coming, baby
I shoulda seen the signs
Didn't really think that she needs me
I must've been blind She said
Take me back won't ya
Take me back won't ya
I changed my ways
She said take me back won't ya
Take me back won't ya
I'm not the same, yeah Won't ya take me back
Won't ya take me back
She said
Won't ya take me back, oh
Won't ya take me back I shoulda seen it coming,
I shoulda seen the signs
Didn't really think she'd need me
But I must've been blind She didn't give me a warning
She says, shouldn't treat you wrong
When I woke up this morning
She was gone, hey Won't ya take me back
Won't ya take me back
She said
Won't ya take me back, no no no
Hey won't ya take me back, oh yeah

Won't ya take me back
Now what am I supposed to say
Won't ya take me back, hey
Won't ya take me back
