

Mean Kids

Ghost Town

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I never said I was loveable
I never said I was more than just a punk
I know they said I was trouble
But they were coming from a place misunderstood
You said "Hey dude just open up"
But I'm the kind of messed up you can't ignore
I never said I was untouchable
You might've got the wrong idea when I wasn't rudeMean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken hearts
Let's talk about the mean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken heartsThe holy grail of unstoppable
I set my course I'm landing on the moon
Evil kids with a crystal ball
Super saiyan something is changing in my brain
Saw me light up a cigarette
Asked for one so you could learn my name
Light speed to my bed, somethings sci-fi's in my headMean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken hearts
Let's talk about the mean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken heartsLosing light
The fear inside
Not gonna lie
I can't decide
If this is right
No second chance
I cannot find
The words that hide
The truth is, I'm hurting

The truth is in the meaning
Losing time
I'm torn inside
I cannot lie
Or seem to find
A shining light
In darker times
I'm doing fine
But that's a lie
The truth is, I'm hurting
The truth is that I'm hurting youMean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken hearts
Let's talk about the mean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Breaking broken hearts, breaking broken heartsMean kids
All the fucking mean kids
Let's talk about the mean kids
