

Just Another Lonely Night

Earth, Wind & Fire

Lonely night, just one lonely night
Without you
Lonely night, just one lonely night
Without you, baby I remember that cold September
You packed your bags and you went away
You were my only love
But you were searching for a better life in L.A. Oh, this loneliness I'm feeling
Has got my body chilling, I'm in need of your touch
Won't you rescue my desire, I long to feel your fire
I'm in need of your love Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you, without you, baby
Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you Cloudy skies look like they're here to stay
And the sun no longer lights up my day
I wish the phone would ring, such joy your voice would bring
I miss the stars that shine my way Is there someone else in your heart
Thrilling you with his charms while I'm lying here alone
We never seem to meet down this rocky road of love
Can't you see, it's you I'm thinking of Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you, without you, baby
Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you My days are cold and my nights are so lonely
I'm like a bird without a song
Like the saying goes, 'There's too many fish in the sea'
Deep down inside I knew that you were meant for me Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you, without you, baby
Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you, without you, baby
Just another night, just another lonely night
Without you Just another night, just another lonely night

Songwriters

Linda Stokes; Michael Stokes Published by

WILLOW GIRL MUSIC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>