

Welcome To the Weekend

Nathan Carter

Where I wanna be
Nathan Carter I'm gonna call that number,
I don't really mean to wake you from your slumber.
While Ireland is asleep.
This hotel is just like yesterday's,
And the city has no name.
It just stands there in the Grey haze,
And my room is the same.
Well I'm gonna call that number,
So far across the sea.
I wish I was in Ireland,
That's where I wanna be,
That's where I wanna be.
I love it when you miss me,
And I'm unhappy too.
Oh please don't you forget me,
I am so in love with you.
Yeah it won't be long now,
And even though I know,
I seem to leave my heart behind me,
Every time I go.
Well I'm gonna call that number,
So far across the sea.
I wish I was in Ireland,
That's where I wanna be,
That's where I wanna be.
Repeat So I feel so tired and lonely,
I'm thinking of you lover,
I wish you could console me,
Maybe when it's over.
Well I'm gonna call that number,
So far across the sea.
I wish I was in Ireland,
That's where I wanna be,
That's where I wanna be.
The hotel is like yesterday's,
And the city has no name.
It just stands there in the Grey haze,
And my room is the same.
Well I'm gonna call that number,
So far across the sea.
I wish I was in Ireland,
That's where I wanna be,
That's where I wanna be.
