Darkness Embedded

Divine Heresy

open up the door to a room lined with darkness, a broken man sits and waits as the razor separates the skin, he bleeds out the sin, but the wound heals, what was drained out, grows back again!

skin so white!
perfect love for some land
to reveal the plan (the plan!)
forever darkness,
you will not make it through this night again

stains of innocence left from all the poison bled within, collecting at his vein!
drowning so far in all the regret of what was done so lost in this, the soul is gone, the sacrifice!

skin so white!
perfect love for some land
to reveal the plan (the plan!)
forever darkness,
you will not make it through this night again

again!

comes the problem of the that spell, for memories of what you lost in life (the life you gave!) rise up form the binding spell for memories of the life you left behind (the sacrifice!)

skin so white!
perfect love for some land
to reveal the plan
forever darkness,
you will not make it through this night again

again!

so rise up form the blood that,
has spilled for memories of the life you left behind!

so rise up form the blood that,
has spilled for resurrection of the one you sacrificed!
