

Marlena

Owen Mac

In a cabin way down by the shore Lips are made and so sweet and so fair? In a cabin way down by the ocean? lived. that sweet little maiden on mine? Oh, Marlena, why did you ever have to say goodbye? Oh, Marlano, why did you ever have to say goodbye? You meant more than anything to me? When you said that you would be mine? In a cabin way down by the ocean? Lift that sweet little maiden of mine? Oh, my marlena Why did you ever have to say goodbye? Oh, marlena Why did you ever have to say goodbye? You meant more than anything to me? When you said that you would be true? Then one day you said you were leaving? But in my dreams, I'll always be with you. Oh, Marlano, why did you ever. have to say goodbye oh marlena why did you ever have to say goodbye
