

All I Need

Louden Swain

So I'm talking alone with a frosty-haired girl at the bar
She says she's from Mexico and I respond ?Wow, that's far?

 Somewhere there in between
 Vodka-fueled breath in my ear
 I lose hold of gravity keeping my legs put right here

But oh, Margarita, I'm taking it easy
?Cause I've got a promise to keep
It's depended on me, senorita
 She's all I need

The discussion ranges from movies to how drunk we got
Yeah we better keep talking for fear that there isn't a lot
 To say

But oh, Margarita, I'm taking it easy
?Cause I've got a promise to keep
It's depended on me, senorita
 She's all I need

And I believe

Inevitably, I get home and I crawl into bed
I whisper ?I love you? and you won't quite hear what I say

But oh, Margarita, I'm taking it easy
?Cause I've got a promise to keep
It's depended on me
(But oh, Margarita)
 Depended on me
(And I've got a promise to keep)
 And now I believe
(Depended on me)
 And now I can see
(Now I believe, margarita)
 (Finally, finally)
Now I believe, senorita
 She's all I need
 And I believe
