

End of Days

ArnoCorps

Moving forward, without the past
I can't forget that I'm the last
Ask me for faith, nothing to give
My family's gone, I barely live!
Why should I care, who should I trust?
We are nothing, ashes and dust
Good and evil, I have a choice
With both ears, I hear Satan's voice! Turn down Satan and feel the pain!
Or join Satan, End of Days!
End of Days!
Turn down Satan and feel the pain!
Or join Satan, end of days!
With dark forces, I'm sure to gain,
With dark forces, End! Of! Days!
Offer me back what I once lost
A temptation, but at what cost?
I summon strength from deep within
Resist hatred, let go of sin!
Why should I care, who should I trust?
We are nothing, ashes and dust
Good and evil, I have a choice
With both ears, I hear Satan's voice! (chorus) Powers so strong, I must resist
The devil's feet must not be kissed
I'd rather die, sword through my heart
My family's dead, we're left apart! And now with your last breath, you will all bear witness...
Why should I care, who should I trust?
We are nothing, ashes and dust
Good and evil, I have a choice
With both ears, I hear Satan's voice! You are a fucking choir boy!
