Chasing the Sun

Alex Lloyd

On my hands, sittin' on half a chance
Waitin' for good things to come
Passers by lookin' through broken glass
Waitin' for good things to comeAnd this cry goes out to everyone
Chasin' the sun, chasin' love
And my heart goes out to everyone
Comin' undone, comin' undone, comin' undoneRound and round, spinnin' through this old dance
Holdin' your heart with your thumb
Straight to plan goes not so everything
Waitin' for good things to comeAnd this cry goes out to everyone
Chasin' the sun, chasin' love
And my heart goes out to everyone
Comin' undone, comin' undone, comin' undoneOh, when will I see you?
There's more to you, there's more to me
Oh, nobody knows how it will turn
How it will turn, how it will turn
How it will turn, how it will turnAnd this cry goes out to everyone
Chasin' the sun, chasin' love
And my heart goes out to everyone
Comin' undone, comin' undone, comin' undone
Comin' undone, comin' undone
