

Calmer Than You Are

A Static Lullaby

tickle me pink with laughter backwards we wind up spinning another shot of whiskey (another shot of whiskey) to train our feet to move we can't feel loved we can't feel free
we can't feel at all
[x3](we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full unloved, we'll lose ourselves (we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full unloved, we'll lose ourselves (once more we'll lose ourselves) we think and drink our cocktails sit and watch the burning bridges throw me another one (roll me another one) to train our minds to move we can't feel loved
we can't feel free
we can't feel at all
[x3](we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full
unloved, we'll lose ourselves
(we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full unloved, we'll lose ourselves we're taking some time why can't you set the trucks to sunset and we forget ride the sun to make us whole (we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full we'll lose ourselves
(we're taking some time) we can't wait for..
(we're packing our bags) our bags, too full
we'll lose ourselves
