

Set in Stone

Black Peaks

Cold, is sound
Set in stone, is how we lie
Memories, will surround
A taste, of the lightCold, is soundMemories, will surround
A taste, of the lightWorked for pay
Lost out
To change
Memories, will surround
A taste, of the lightWorked for pay
Memories, will surround
A taste of the lightOf what I heard you say
You'll never see my way
Of all the things we've said
We'll always be this way
ForeverMemories, will surround
A taste of the light
Memories, will surround
A taste of the light
Can't you hear my name
It won't feel the same
Buried hands in shame
You can't hear my name
