Illusion (Instrumental)

Approaching Nirvana

The cold blue sky, so clear from my view.
I'm standing still; the world still moves.
I'm counting sheep to try to fall asleep, hey,
Wondering why, why I'm the only one.The moments pass (yes they do)
I can't rewind (can't rewind)
Thinking why, why I'm the only one
To see you.To see you
(To see you, to see you)Her cold blue eyes, so clear of views.
Lying still, but she still moves.
I'm counting sheep to try to fall asleep, hey,
Wondering why, why I'm the only one
To see you.The moments pass (yes they do)
I can't rewind (can't rewind)
Thinking why, why I'm the only one
To see you.To see you
(To see you, to see you)
