

Black Boy (LP Version)

Eugene McDaniels

Black boy, where you bound?
Searching through the years to share
Gaze at the top
With nowhere to drop
You don't care Black boy, wear your face
Patience is the load you bear
The man is deranged
Life has not changed
You don't care
Obey like the children
For all of your life
Oh still you love the children
Because they are children Black boy, dry your eyes
Good boys do not cry for love
Pain in your chest
Damn all the rest
You don't care
