You Just Don't Know It

Jonas Brothers

You just dont know it
Its getting hard to say, hello
You just dont know it
Im on the edge of crossing the lineI dont want to blow it and show it
Before you know youre mine
You just dont know itOh, you wont see me break
Wont make that mistake, oh no
Ill just walk away
There's too much at stake, right nowI go on and on
Singing this song about you
And thats whats wrong
With this songCan you feel it?
In the way I looked at you
And girl, can you hear it?
Im cryin' out insideI dont want to see you
Be near you
Youre a million miles too closeOh, you wont see me break
Wont make that mistake, oh no
Ill just walk away
There's too much at stake, right nowI go on and on
Singing this song about you
And thats whats wrong
With this songThats whats wrong
With this songYou dont know the way I feel
So Ill stay aloneOh, you wont see me break
Wont make that mistake, oh no
Ill just walk away
There's too much at stake, right nowI go on and on
Singing this song about you
And thats whats wrong
With this songAnd thats whats wrong
With this song
And thats whats wrong
With this songCan't you still know it?
