

Abnegation

In Flames

We believe but we are deceased
Or soon to be
I act surprised
You've seen the seas
It's just enough to feed the trees We believe but we are not free
This wasteland is our prison
I act surprised
I see the bone through your skin
This radiation from within I grant you
This torn land,
I'd rather not live here anymore
Don't say I didn't try, but I'd rather not live here anymore We believe but we can't see
The coming of the storm
I act surprised
There's warnings from time to time
Signs of our own decline We are the scavengers
We plunder and rape
We can't see the new breed
But act like its ours to take I grant you
This torn land,
I'd rather not live here anymore
Don't say I didn't try,
but I'd rather not live here anymore We believe but we don't see I grant you
This torn land,
I'd rather not live here anymore
Don't say I didn't try,
but I'd rather not live here anymore I grant you
This torn land, I'd rather not live here anymore
Don't say I didn't try,
but I'd rather not live here anymore
