Tina Said

Those Darlins

Tina said that its a stage but I dont know
Lookin at her lyin with her face down in the floor
Her arms are limp and her legs are useless
A constant battle that she always losin
Nothin but the hair standin up on her head
Cursin her life in between each breath
Seems to me that its a permanent way
But Tina said Tina said its just a stageSittin in her castle on her giant throne
Nose is turnin blue cause her hearts so cold
Iced em out to make herself feel better
Still wont admit that she was wrong about the weather
No fire hot enough to warm her nose
Shes all alone with her frost bitten toes
Seems to me that its a permanent way
But Tina said Tina said its just a stage
But Tina said Tina said its just a stageHes been silent for a couple of years
Walked into a trap but he shed no tears
Been workin hard oh according to Tina
They slapped him in the face with a court subpoena
Only solid shelter they ever had
This is how they thank him for breaking his back
Policeman says that he caused all this pain
But Tina said Tina said its just a stage
But Tina said Tina said its just a stageShe still believes in all those lies that she told
In her head shes grown up so old
Just because she broke em down on judgement day
She thinks that she can justify the mess that she made
Immaturity is making her blind
She dont know the reason she cant sleep at night
Seems to me that its a permanent way
But Tina said Tina said its just a stage
Oh Tina said Tina said its just a stage
