

It Just Don't Matter Now

Hank Williams

It just don't matter now For years I've lived without a meaning
I've lost faith in dreams somehow
I'm so sick and tired of scheming
I guess it just don't matter now All my life I've been a loser
It seems that fate has made a vow
That I will never know contentment
But it just don't matter now Yes, I knew the day I lost you
But could not face fact somehow
And I knew just what it cost you
But it just don't matter now
