

The Fight (Acoustic Version)

The Classic Crime

Would you go to war for me, baby

Would you cry for the weak

And die for the peace of men

Oh how can we know

You and I both know

So let's make this boatload of excuses burn and singOne day it all comes down to this

You can sink or swim

You can handle this

One day it all comes down

One day we all go downI'll take my heart back

And set the people free

I'll leave the dead to die

And take what's coming with meStep back for all the world to see

Your life means all the world to me

I'll take your pain and suffering

I'm such a sucker sometimes

Sometimes we don't know

So plug up those bullet holes

Oh you feel so close, don't let go until I sayOne day we'll drink to this and say

Remember when we died

We went out in flamesI'll take my heart back

And set the people free

And take what's coming with meStep back for all the world to see

Your life means all the world to me

I'll take your pain and suffering

I'm such a sucker sometimes

Sometimes we don't know

So plug up those bullet holes

Oh you feel so close, don't let go until I sayOne day we'll drink to this and say

Remember when we died

We went out in flamesI'll take my heart back

And set the people free

There will be blood in the streets
