Dirt Road in 'Em

Aaron Pritchett

You could be uptown livin', high rise sippin' on some good champagne
You could be Hollywood hills, throwin' down bills, like you're makin' it rain
You could be down in that line in Detroit city, or up on top, sittin' pretty Smokin' a big cigar, I don't care who you are'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Yeah, you know what I'm talkin' about
We all bring a little small town with us
No matter where your sun goes down
Everybody's got a tailgate, even if it ain't
On the back of some pickup truck
Pass the fried chicken
Everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Everybody's got a little dirt road in 'emHey there baby, what say we find a little lazy creek
Kick off them high heeled shoes, and show me them pretty bare feet
Trade in them city lights and downtown bars for a couple million blinking stars
And a big full moon, get on back to your roots'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Yeah, you know what I'm talkin' about
We all bring a little small town with us
No matter where your sun goes down
Everybody's got a tailgate, even if it ain't
On the back of some pickup truck
Pass the fried chicken
'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Oh yeahNo matter where you come from, you know you got some Down home money water running through your veins
Might be a big ol' world, but we're all the same'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Yeah, you know what I'm talkin' about
We all bring a little small town with us
No matter where your sun goes down
Everybody's got a tailgate, even if it ain't
On the back of some pickup truck
Pass the fried chicken
'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Oh yeah
Everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Yes, they do now
'Cause everybody's got a little dirt road in 'em
Yeah, you know what I'm talkin' about
We all bring a little small town with us
No matter where your sun goes down

Everybody's got a tailgate, even if it ain't

Songwriters
TROY JOHNSON, JUSTIN SHERMAN, JACK WILLIAMSPublished by Lyrics Â© TUNECORE INC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/