

Perfect World

Roger Daltrey

White girl, in a perfect world
You'd trust in your lover
Will boys ever be boys again
Blond boy, in a perfect world you'd know if
You loved her
Will girls ever be girls again
Black boy, in a perfect world there'd
Be understanding
Still you're perfect cause you love your girl
Black girl, in a perfect world there'd
Be no demanding
Still you're perfect cause you love your man
It don't make no difference
Boys of London, girls of Memphis
We are all a revolution in this jaded institution
In the New York times
To the L. A. coast
They go bump to bump
In the perfect world
For the perfect boy and the perfect girl
They go bump to bump in the perfect world
Black girl, in a perfect world you'd know
That I love ya
And everyone would understand
White boy, in a perfect world you'd
Need no protection
And love would still be something in heart
White girl, in a perfect world there'd
Be understanding
And boys would be boys again
Black girl, in a perfect world you'd know
That I love ya
And everyone would understand
It don't make no difference
Boys of London, girls of Memphis
We are all a revolution in this jaded institution
In the New York times
To the L. A. coast
They go bump to bump
In the perfect world
For the perfect boy and the perfect girl
They go bump to bump in the perfect world

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>