

Across the Bridge

Blume

The Eagle flies today
A snake around her neck
Sun (is) up in the sky
It Shines above its shines
Yes! Now I can see
The colours of my world
Proud to walk alone
Walk alone
Over the rainbow I like to fly
The wind is running through my hair
I won't stop this ride
The raven "Nevermore"
Doesn't appear in the sunland
It's midday now the time has come!
Can you see the light?
I don't want to steal
The fire of the gods
Because it's old extinct
Not necessary for me
Some were born to exist
Some were born to choose
Others only survive
Their world? Grey
Over the rainbow I like to fly
The wind is running through my hair
I won't stop this ride
The raven "Nevermore"
Doesn't appear in the sunland
It's midday now the time has come!
Can you see the light?
