The Blame Game

Noturnall

I've got the ground out from under you
(Gladly die)
It's your mistake, yes, now comeIt's a long walk home but you've hit rock-bottom
It's a long walk home but you never get home
Give me a reason to speak my mind
Give me a reason, I'm not your bitch every timeBlame me
(You always)
Blame me for everything
Blame me
(You always)
Blame me for everythingMy mind is pure, my heart is true
You're a thankless piece of shit
I blame youPushed aside yourself
(Fucker)
What do you see?
It's your mistake, it's your gunIt's a long walk home but you've hit rock-bottom
It's a long walk home but you never get home
Give me a reason to speak my mind
Give me a reason, I'm not your bitch every timeBlame me
(You always)
Blame me for everything
Blame me
(You always)
Blame me for everythingMy mind is pure, my heart is true
You're a thankless piece of shit
I blame youTransgressions not forgotten
Cutting off the cost
Iron-cast bound forever
To fight for my triumph or tragedyI blame you
(You)
I put the blame on, I put the blame on you
(You)
I put the blame on, I put the blame on you
I blame you
(You)
