

The Last Kiss

AFI

Hung in your room, swaying, hoping only that you'll see
All by myself, I'm alone in such poor company
The deeper I think, the deeper I seem to sink I can't stop the insects that are feeding
Pull the needles from beneath my skin I broke myself, shattered, tied a bow around every piece
You'll lovely the eyes have they always shown so vacantly?
The more I show the less you'll want to know I can't stop the insects that are feeding
Pull the needles from beneath my skin (Now I'm on display)
I am becoming
(Hurt myself today)
It's all for you
(Do you like, do you like)
What I'm becoming?
(Cut myself today)
It's all for you I part the night, flashing, approaching as I watch you flee
Pushed through your panes seems I've landed quite uncomfortably
But as I pass through souls of broken glass I can't stop the insects that are feeding
Pull the needles from beneath my skin (Now I'm on display)
I am becoming
(Hurt myself today)
It's all for you
(Do you like, do you like)
What I'm becoming?
(Cut myself today)
It's all for you Please don't ask me just what I think, trust me
You don't want to know
Please don't ask me to open up, trust me, trust me 'Cause I can't stop the insects that are feeding
Pull the needles from beneath my skin (Now I'm on display)
I am becoming
(Hurt myself today)
It's all for you
(Do you like, do you like)
What I'm becoming?
(Cut myself today)
It's all for you
It's all for you
