This Is Me

Monrose

When I'm lying on Floor,
Starring at the door.
And tears are falling down.(Don't think I came back in alone)Been lying here for days,
Soaking up the pain.
My tears are slowly drowned.(Don't think I came back in alone)So I move my feet up off the ground
Get myself in a shower,
Wash you up.
I'm too strong to fail,
Stronger now.Don't get twisted,
Not missing you,
Take a lookThis is me
And I will not be invisible,
You can't keep me in control,
Tonight I'm startin' again. (again, again)(Don't think I can make it alone.)No I will not be invisible,
Shining bright like a star,
I'm in control
No you won't hurt me again,
You won't hurt me again...When I'm reaching out for life
And die a thousand times
Too weak to carry on...(Don' think I can't make it alone.)When silence is the sound,
And hope is fading out
And all the love has gone(Don't think I can't make it alone.)For a while the ground was gone,
Don't worry I weren't there for long
I'm stronger now,
Too strong to fall.
Don't get twisted.
Not missing you.
Take a look.This is me
And I will not be invisible,
you can't keep me in control,
Tonight I'm startin' again. (again, again)(Don't think I can make it alone.)No I will not be invisible,
Shining bright like a star,
I'm in control
No you won't hurt me again,
You won't hurt me again...Take a look
I won't hurt.
Take a look
I won't hurt.
Take a look

I won't hurt.
Take a look
I won't hurt.
Take a look
I won't hurt.
Take a look
I won't hurt.
Take a look
I won't hurt.This is me
And I will not be invisible,
you can't keep me in control,
Tonight I'm startin' again. (again, again)(Don't think I can make it alone.)No I will not be invisible,
Shining bright like a star,
I'm in control
No you won't hurt me again,
You won't hurt me again... (again, again, again, again)
