

Fruitcake

Eraserheads

There's a fruitcake for everybody
There's a fruitcake for everyone
There are b-sides to every story
If you decide to have some funTake a bite
It's alright
There's some brandy and star margarine to make it bright
Take a bite
It's alright
A little lovin' and some fruit to bake
Life is a piece of cakeIt's the season for being happy
But the reason is dead and gone
If the reason for being happy
Takes a backseat when the season's doneJust take a bite
It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
Take a bite
It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
Life is a piece of cakeEverybody, everywhere people do you really care
Christmas time has once again arrived
Everybody, everywhere people do you really care
Christmas time has once again arrivedMistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heights
Mistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heightsStars are falling down from heaven
But it's nowhere near our town
Miracles are falling down from heaven
But it's nowhere near our townThere's a fruitcake in everybody
There's a fruitcake in everyone
There are b-sides to every story
If you decide to have some funJust take a bite
It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
Take a bite
It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
Life is a piece of cake
