Go Alone

Hell or Highwater

its been a long time since i killed a man some men dont need a reason why some people find it hard to understand fact is some people need to dierevolver cold as the stories told his wife and children cried as i left them all alone we all know we cant live forever soPray for me
cuz ive been searching for heaven while running from hell when death finds me ill go aloneits been a while since i closed my eyes since i could call myself a man just one more morning that the sun would rise a strangers blood upon my handsmy hearts turned to stone i find myself alone with no-one to hear my cries did they all deserve to die? i know i wont live foreverPray for me cuz ive been searching for heaven while running from hell
and now i see what lies ahead of me
i know ill be forgotten while all of my sins catch up with me ill go alonei saw the sweat and fear my gun between his eyes he feels the angels near and starts to realize hes met the man whos got the devil by his side i pull my trigger and my darkness becomes his lighti dont know why i killed so many times its the evil deep inside me thats made me realize that i know i wont live forever
soPray for me
cuz ive been searching for heaven while running from hell
ill go alone
