

Breather Ii.

Oceana

Let it be reborn invited and I (hate my ways now)

I looked possessed in a focus of pure hate

(And I was gone forever, gone forever, gone)I didn't mean it and now I'm faded and wasted

I'm throwing up the old

I knew that I'd live it, admit it my demons were beating me downCut out the black space the blood and frustration (of a wasteful life)

And I sent myself away with the medicine another (sleepless night sleepless night)I didn't mean it and now I'm faded and wasted

I knew that I'd live it, admit it my demons were beating me down
