

Tarrytown Girls

Raspberry Pie

Tarrytown girls on the morning bus
Make the commute with the rest of us
Spending New Year's in Time's Square
Laughing through our tired stares

From the west side out to Brooklyn
Girls from out of town are looking
Out for thieves and subway rats and
I heart New York shirts and hats
To wear back home and show their friends
They can't wait to come back again, oh
To the best place in the world, to be naive to be a Tarrytown girl

Tarrytown girls on the downtown B
Standing alongside you and me
Riding down to Rockaway
To text and tan on the beach all day

From the west side out to Brooklyn
Girls from out of town are looking
Out for thieves and subway rats and
I heart New York shirts and hats
To wear back home and show their friends
They can't wait to come back again, oh
To the best place in the world, to be naive to be a Tarrytown girl

Tarrytown girls that stop and stare
At skyscrapers unaware
Of all the people looking on
Who just can't wait until they're gone

From the west side out to Brooklyn
Girls from out of town are looking
Out for thieves and subway rats and
I heart New York shirts and hats
To wear back home and show their friends
They can't wait to come back again, oh
To the best place in the world, to be naive to be a Tarrytown girl

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>