Sleeping With An Angel

Real McCoy

I've been around, been in the lost and found
Then I found myself in your eyes
Thought it was just one more night on the town
Then I realized, I realizedI'm sleeping with an angel, she makes me feel so good
Sleeping with an angel, I didn't know I could
But I've done too many wrongs, sung too many songs
To be sleeping with an angel, sleeping with an angelI've been in love and I've seen it all fall apart
I hurt so bad and I hurt somebody real bad
I didn't think I could ever feel love againNow I'm sleeping with an angel, she makes me feel so good
Sleeping with an angel, I didn't know I could
But I've done too many wrongs, sung too many songs
To be sleeping with an angelAnd in your eyes I see the light
Of a million candles burning bright
And in your eyes I see the light
Of a million candles burning brightMy mother and my father were divorced, my father remarried
My mother died alone and so angry
(Ooh ooh ooh)
Sometimes I feel shell-shocked like I've been through a warI'm sleeping with an angel, she makes me feel so good
Sleeping with an angel, I didn't know I could
But I've done too many wrongs, sung too many songs
To be sleeping with an angel, sleeping with an angelI'm sleeping with an angel, she makes me feel so good
Sleeping with an angel, I didn't know I could
I thought I'd done too many wrongs, sung too many songs
To be sleeping with an angel
