Til The End

James Hunter

Tell me what's your hurry
To bid this world goodbye
You ain't even half way through the story
You got your whole life to die

You never know what's coming 'round the bend
Try to hold on 'til the end

You got to keep on living
If only for someone else's sake
Just 'cause life's something you've been given
Don't mean it's yours to take

You never know what's coming 'round the bend
Try to hold on 'til the end

This world is harder than ever
Even I know that's true
But tell me how much better
Would it be for losing you

You never know what's coming 'round the bend
Try to hold on 'til the end

You never know what's coming 'round the bend
Try to hold on 'til the end
Try to hold on 'til the end
Mmmm...
