I Get Along Without You Very Well

Rodrigo Rodrigues

I get along without you very well, of course I do
Except when the soft rains fall
And drip from the leaves, then I recall
The thrill of being sheltered in your arms, of course I do
But I get along without you very wellI've forgotten you just like I should, of course I have
Except to hear your name
Or someone's laugh that is just the same
But I've forgotten you just like I shouldWhat a guy, what a fool am I
To think my breaking heart could kid the moon
What's in store, should I phone once more?
No it's best that I stick to my tuneI get along without you very well, of course I do
Except perhaps in spring
But I should never think of spring
For that would surely break my heart in two
