

Start The Day Right

Field Music

I'm sure I was dreaming,
Or was I just tired?
A chance to start the day right
A quirk in the morning A moment of quiet
Someone hoping to be outside
A tea and a slice
A voice on the air Asks 'remember how you got here?'
Each morning,
He'll be asking you to recall
The thinnest thrill of all Switch places,
With the worst mistake that you've made
Then wake up again
