Lazy

Freezepop

telephone call woke me up at noon i thought it was much too soon pulled the covers tightly up and then i went back to sleep againwoke once more at half past one getting out of bed's no fun i'm so cozy , won't you pretty please bring a bowl of rice krispiesfeeling lazy, feeling tired feeling sleepy, feeling slow feeling slothful, feeling sluggish feeling drowsy don't you knownot up yet, it's after two nice here lying close to you feeling like a happy kitty cat pat my head and scratch my backclock tells me it's nearing three no place that i'd rather be what a lazy lazy life this is swooning from your kissesfeeling lazy, feeling tired feeling sleepy, feeling slow
feeling slothful, feeling sluggish feeling drowsy don't you knowwhat's the hurry anyway i can wait to start my day won't you stay in bed with me eat candy bars and watch tvnow my dear, it's after four can't get enough, so gimme more five o'clock is already past darkness is approaching fastfeeling lazy, feeling tired feeling sleepy, feeling slow
feeling drowsy don't you know feeling lazy, feeling tired feeling sleepy, feeling slow
feeling slothful, feeling sluggish
