

Cannonball

Bleach

The world is drained, marked me like Cain
Entered the fane of worldly sane
I worshiped me but now I'm free
My life's a gift from Him, to Him I'll lift All love and joy and peace has broke through to me
I'll let His love break down these walls like a cannonball Now I can breathe, I feel so free
And I can see, He works even through me
His grace abounds when I fall down
My life's a gift from Him, to Him I'll lift The world is drained, marked you like Cain
Entered the fane of worldly sane
You worshiped you, what will you do?
Your life's a gift from Him, to Him you better lift
