We Are Always Searching

I Am Ghost

It's a cold dark night,
Hallows Eve upon the crest,
In a parking lot of vampires in suits to look their best,And the music,
Next to coffins made of gold,
With friends and lovers freshly buried.?
Her beauty washes over me,
So let us hide and we'll dance the night away.?Kiss the rise of the sun, then we'll melt away, that's who we are
We're always searchin', always searchin'
?In a white dress, with no eyes,
Black suit, red devil bow tie,
The King and Queen are crowned Victorian."Is this the last of our haunting?"
She says as she floats like an angel.
"You will never know until you let me go, I'm hoping this will never end!"?
Her beauty washes over me,
So let us hide and we'll dance the night away.?Kiss the rise of the sun, then we'll melt away, that's who we are
We're always searchin', always searchin'
?The haunting
Where we fell in love.
(4x)Her beauty washes over me,
So let us hide and we'll dance the night away.?Kiss the rise of the sun, then we'll melt away, that's who we are
We're always searchin', always searchin'
(2x)
