

You Don't Believe

The Alan Parsons Project

My eyes with your vision
My choice but always your decision
My play with your direction
Well, it's my lead but always your connection But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe My words, your expression
My land always your possession
My song, your production
My expense is always your deduction But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe And the face I see before me
Is both sides of a mirror
You really know you've got a hold on me And the face you're looking into
Is both sides of a window
Any way you look you see through me My fame, your reflection
My weakness, always your protection
Well, it's my terms on your conditions
And they're my tunes but they're your compositions But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe And the face I see before me
Is both sides of a mirror
You really know you've got a hold on me And the face you're looking into
Is both sides of a window
Any way you look you see through me But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe But when I look into your eyes, you don't believe me
I can see it in your eyes, you don't believe
