

Hindsight

Death Cab for Cutie

Three wasted years, standing still
As you opened up, eighteen miles wide
On this country drive I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight Three wasted years, wasting time
As the hunger pains grow inside I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight I can't keep up
'Cause you're so far gone
And it's all too much hindsight
