

Still Be There

Lil' Romeo

I ain't trippin' girl age ain't nuttin'
I ain't trippin' girl age ain't nuttin'
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
I remember way back in them kindergarten classes
Snack time the way yo smile used to shine
How we used to line up in them single fine lines
Walkin' out to recess takin' all them deep breaths
Watchin' me develop all my basketball skills
Dribblin' from the the start and you took my heart
I couldn't wait till the next day, to see yo face
All over again, yo love I'm still tryna to win come on
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
A few years passed but still the same feelings
I got more popular still the same feelings
I had and I don't know if they will change
And all my friends tellin' me to concentrate on yo game
Keep ya grades good MBA's in ya fortune
But you so pretty can a soldier break to lose ya
And I won't really call it puppy love I'm havin'
It's more like a crush so we gon' can keep it on the hush, okay
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?

Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
In the 7th grade now and I'm stunnin' like a superstar
Referee takin' all startin' point gourd and it's funny
'Cause I still feel the same way
You've start notice how I'm lookin' yo way
But through it all still shy
And I'ma put it in a letter 'cause
I think that's the best way to tell ya
That we can still grow together
And we could weather the storm is strong
And deal with whatever
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
Young girl, why you wanna grow older?
Young or old baby, I'ma still be there
