Stapled to the Mattress

Scarling.

It's over you're sober -pants around your ankles
You're ship wrecked - You've gone mute
Nothing there to say
You're naked and shaking like a 2 bit Judas
You fall down closefisted and end up in my wayYou're the people who just want me to notice
You're the people I try so hard to ignore
You're the coward who demands me to save him
You will smother - under covers- stapled to the mattress.You traipse on your loved ones
Most who will disown you
You'll search for a family, those you can destroy
Methodically sickened, by their inhibitions
But rather then fix it- you will just avoidYou're the people who just want me to notice
You're the people I try so hard to ignore
You're the coward who demands me to save him
You will smother - under covers- stapled to the mattress.You're a person who I can't help but notice -
Enjoys drowning into other's self disdain
Void of person - No, I don't think I know you
Please hunt others
Vultures hover
You're stapled to your mattersStapled to the mattress
Stapled to the mattress
Stapled to the mattress
Stapled to the mattress
Stapled to the mattress
