

Human-proof

Impaled Nazarene

There is a limit, of how much I can take
And swallow all their fucking shite
Then I built a shelter, to protect my thoughts
'cause it is all against me Feel the hatred Start shivering
My destiny is human-proof me Any positive feelings, cannot afford to have
'cause they are all in fucking vain
No use to be stronger when I can be meaner
And use the cattle just to gain Once I reach the state of my new godhood
I will turn into the asshole you told I am
'cause there is no conscience, there will be no limits
For all the shit I will put you thru
