Rise & Fall With You

Amboaje

Baby I caught the meaning
Driving home with your memory
There's no road when you are out there
Far away from me

Maybe I found midnight
But you are in every dream
Not the end, the beginning
Finally I see

I will rise when I find your arms
I will fall when you take me high
It's been hard these days
I lose some faith
But I will stand by you

Now I'm sure what I'm feeling
This is more than thw words can say
This will last forever
Don't waste another day

Our room was a way of leaving
Every kiss was as long as needed
Hold on because everywhere I go is a road that leads to you

I will rise when I find your arms
I will fall when you take me high
It's been hard these days
I lose some faith
But I will stand by you

You will rise cause I'm on your side
When you fall, gonna hold you tight
Everywhere I've been to understand
I'll rise and fall with you

I won't regret this
I'm safe and sound
Nothing between us can get through

I will rise when I find your arms
I will fall when you take me high
It's been hard these days
I lose some faith
But I will stand by you

You will rise cause I'm on your side
When you fall, gonna hold you tight
Everywhere I've been to understand
I'll rise and fall with you

I will rise and fall
I will rise
I will rise and fall
I will rise and fall with you
