Laura

Jimmy Nail

I can hear the ocean pushing the bay
If I close my eyes then maybe it'll go away
Everywhere there's sunlight and Children play for time, thought I heard a sign
Then I realized it was mineThe sky's a perfect blue again
But if you look it's hard to tell
If it's paradise or hellBut now I know, Laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, Laura, I wish I could see your faceWhen a million birds sing how can I be sad
It's if they know I lost the only chance I hadThe sky's a perfect blue again
But it might as well be gray
'Cause I let you walk awayBut now I know, Laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, Laura, I wish I could see your face
Oh, Laura, I kissed you in the rain
Oh, Laura, how I wish I was home againIn winter I was warmer
Don't make me wait here alone
The sun has cast its shadow
And it chills me to the boneOh, Laura, how I wish I was coming homeThe sky's a perfect blue again
But it might as well be gray
'Cause I let you walk awayBut now I know, Laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, Laura, I wish I could see your face
Oh, Laura, I kissed you in the rain
Oh, Laura, how I wish I was home again

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/